Second annual Afridiziak Gifts and Occasions Christmas Shopping boutique

To kick-start the festive season, we are pleased to announce that the second annual Afridiziak Gifts and Occasions Christmas Shopping boutique will be held on Saturday 3 December from 12pm to 7pm at the CLF art Café in Peckham, south-east London.

This unique shopping event brings together exhibitors who will be offering affordable cultural gifts you won't find on the shelves of local high street shops or department stores.

The family day gives shoppers the opportunity to pick up inspiring gifts which ooze creativity and in many cases that bespoke, handmade touch – it's a chance to treat yourself and pick up something a bit more personal and thoughtful for your loved ones too.

You will find a wide assortment of gift types to cross off your gift-giving list. You can expect to see top quality exhibitors who will be showcasing the finest selection of culturally inspired merchandise.

Our exhibitors will be selling a variety of unique, cultural gifts including: children's toys; books for all ages; hair and beauty products many of which will have been naturally/organically produced; jewellery and accessories; art, greeting cards; clothing for men, children and women; and seasonal food and drink.

Charity: For the second year running we have chosen the African-Caribbean Leukaemia Trust [ACLT] as our official charity for and will be donating a third of proceeds taken on the day to them.
